

DAILY CONSTITUTION.

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION
CITY, COUNTY AND STATE.

DEFIES REFUTATION.

To the Writers—Full report of the sessions of the Supreme Court is furnished by the Constitution, by the Reporter of the Court.

To Correspondents.—We do not regard anonymous letters and communications as commendable. Rejected communications we can not undertake either to return or preserve.

Supreme Court DECISIONS are now ready in pamphlet form, with table of cases and general index. At the last term decision of very great importance were rendered. Send post paid for $1. Address W. A. Hemphill & Co.

GENERAL TRAVELING AGENT: J. M. ACTON.

ATLANTA:

Saturday Morning, October 17, 1874

STATE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FIRST DISTRICT:

Hon. J. HARTDIDGE, of Chatman.

SECOND DISTRICT:

Hon. W. E. SMITH, of Dougherty.

THIRD DISTRICT:

Hon. PHILIP COOK, of Sumter.

FOURTH DISTRICT:

Hon. H. R. HARRIS, Meriwether.

FIFTH DISTRICT:

Hon. M. A. CANDLER, of DeKalb.

SIXTH DISTRICT:

Hon. Jas. H. BLOUNT, of Bibb.

SEVENTH DISTRICT:

Hon. A. H. STEPHENS, Taliferro.

NINTH DISTRICT:

Hon. G. McMILLAN, of Habersham.

ELECTION TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3d.

BREVITIES.

Brigham Young is better, and black boubazine has declined.

About 3,000 Chinese proverbs will be printed at Shanghai by the Rev. W. Schlesinger.

Mark Twain has refused thirty thousand dollars for fifty lectures. The "Gilded Age" is his only hobby now.

In Mr. Beecher's sermon on Sunday his argument culminated in the exclamation, "Any man who the everlasting importance of this! Sorry he feels so badly about logic."

There are 78 islands off the coast of Scotland, of which about 186 are inhabited. Many of them are very small, mere rocks, and have not even vegetation of any kind.

A portrait of Thomas Jefferson, labelled "The greatest American patriot," is said to attract much attention from American visitors to the Louvre in Paris, Germany.

The next grand wedding—Washington will be that of Lloyd George M. Wheeler, engineer corps U. S. As the well known engineer, to Miss Blair, a niece of ex Postmaster General Conover.

The English postal system is so thorough that a misdirected letter will relentlessly chase a man from one end of the British dominion to the other, and never give it up till it finds him or his corpse.

A Paris retail dry goods and notions store employs a staff of 200 clerks and 250 salesmen, and trade requires, for proper transaction, the use of 35 wagons and 8 horses. All the employees dine at the same restaurant, a number of them having lodgings there also.

Rod Hubbard, Mrs. Beecher's one thousand dollars for his Boston lecture—the largest he ever paid for a single lecture. This will be Mr. Beecher's only lecture in America. There are indications that his friends here will make it a memorable occasion.—[Boston Advertiser.]

If the times are hard stop your paper, or do not shorten your advertising for while it is a great comfort to the wife and children, but that is no reason why you should provide them with a weekly luxury at the expense of a daily necessity.

An unpublished romance of Alexander Dumas the father is known to exist, and it may shortly be given to the public. It has a peculiar history. Dumas the father received a great deal of money to write a history of the French revolution late in life to provide for a third child, an illegitimate daughter, who was likely to be left penniless in case of his death. He had this romance, therefore, for her fortune, and certainly she is well provided for.

A call has been issued by the Episcopal diocese of Iowa for a special convention to be held on Wednesday, December 4, at the cathedral. Bishop F. F. Twenty-four clerical and laymen will be required for a choice. Among those spoken of are the Rev. W. H. Bassi, Bishop of Des Moines; the Rev. Dr. Koven of Racine, Wisconsin; Rev. Dr. Porter, of Grace church, New York; and the Rev. Messrs. Sullivan of Chicago, and McElwaine of Keokuk.

Mary Sherman and Lieut. Fitch are recently married. We are glad to learn, and it may shortly be given to the public, that it has a peculiar history. Dumas the father received a great deal of money to write a history of the French revolution late in life to provide for a third child, an illegitimate daughter, who was likely to be left penniless in case of his death. He had this romance, therefore, for her fortune, and certainly she is well provided for.

A call has been issued by the Episcopal diocese of Iowa for a special convention to be held on Wednesday, December 4, at the cathedral. Bishop F. F. Twenty-four clerical and laymen will be required for a choice. Among those spoken of are the Rev. W. H. Bassi, Bishop of Des Moines; the Rev. Dr. Koven of Racine, Wisconsin; Rev. Dr. Porter, of Grace church, New York; and the Rev. Messrs. Sullivan of Chicago, and McElwaine of Keokuk.

Mary Sherman and Lieut. Fitch are recently married. We are glad to learn, and it may shortly be given to the public, that it has a peculiar history. Dumas the father received a great deal of money to write a history of the French revolution late in life to provide for a third child, an illegitimate daughter, who was likely to be left penniless in case of his death. He had this romance, therefore, for her fortune, and certainly she is well provided for.

The worst used up man in the country is Congressmen Hayes, of Alabama. It will be remembered that he "starred" the nation with his speech on the 23rd inst., the fourth day of the state fair. To this important meeting he invites the Governor of Georgia, the president of railroads and other transportation companies, the mayors of cities and presidents of boards of trade and chambers of commerce, in the southern and western states. As the railroads will pass these gentlemen and from the meeting free, a large number of the commercial moguls of the south will doubtless be here to lend an increased dignity to the great gatherings of the fair week.

The worst used up man in the country is Congressmen Hayes, of Alabama. It will be remembered that he "starred" the nation with his speech on the 23rd inst., the fourth day of the state fair. To this important meeting he invites the Governor of Georgia, the president of railroads and other transportation companies, the mayors of cities and presidents of boards of trade and chambers of commerce, in the southern and western states. As the railroads will pass these gentlemen and from the meeting free, a large number of the commercial moguls of the south will doubtless be here to lend an increased dignity to the great gatherings of the fair week.

The Washington correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal says that, if the heavens had opened on Wednesday morning and rained an inundation of negro babies, all orphans and clad in bloody shirts, the consternation, horror and disgust in truly loyal circles could not be greater than was produced by the Ohio and Indiana elections. The general opinion of politicians in Washington now is, that the elections of November will go in favor of the democracy. To lightened the load which the republicans of New York and New Jersey are carrying, an effort is said, will be made to induce Grant to come out over his own name in a declaration that he will not be a candidate for a third term.

The Chattanooga Commercial complains that the merchants of that city have not the nerve to control the trade that legitimately belongs to them. To prove this, it asserts that cotton raised only twelve miles from Chattanooga is shipped to Atlanta, although the local rates of freight are very high. Lives, it says, who are able to pay cash, can draw to Chattanooga all the cotton that is raised along the line of the Western and Atlantic railroad, as far south as Calhoun. We agree with our contemproary that they can—on paper.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate a claim to as much virtue as the rest of his crew.

Sen. Senator SAWYER, late of South Carolina, but now of New York City, is a defaulter for a large sum. He owed the large balance while he was assistant secretary of the treasury. The fact was then known in the department, but no little matter like that is ever thrown up against a man in official circles, now-a-days. He claims that he can account for the balance, but as he has failed to propose a settlement on one point after another, his claim is growing weaker. He can at least substantiate

DAILY CONSTITUTION.

SUGAR CREAM PAPER MILLS,
WM. MCNAUGHT & CO.
See Daily and Weekly CONSTITUTION for specimen of our news."

PEASLEY'S PALACE DINING ROOMS,
LAWA STREET, ATLANTA, GEORGIA.
HAVE PLEASED THE PEOPLE
SINCE 1852.

"At first to give Atlanta what she has long needed, a elegant Restaurant.

"This House has had a popular run of eight years."

"Our Lady Department is on the second floor,
strictly reserved for the amusement
and gives pleasure to the people satisfaction."

"Social attention is given to select Supper Dinner to order, Wedding parties, etc., etc."

Mr. West, formerly connected with Society Hotel, now connected with the Club, Oglethorpe and Fruit Business.

Price List of Norfolk Oysters:
Select, per quart..... 65 cents
Medium, per quart..... 55 cents
Ordinary, per quart..... 40 cents
Address..... O. L. PEASE, Janl-dif. Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA:

Saturday Morning, October 17, 1874

Democratic Municipal Ticket

MATOR C. HAMMICK.

FOR ALDERMEN:

Three Years.—J. A. WEST.

Two Years.—R. F. MADDOX.

One Year.—A. HAAS.

FOR COUNCILMAN:

THREE YEARS.

J. B. GOODWIN.

J. D. TURNER.

SECOND WARD:

J. W. GOLDSMITH.

W. D. ELLIS.

THIRD WARD:

D. A. BEATTIE.

T. A. MORRIS.

FOURTH WARD:

J. H. FLYNN.

J. S. GARMAN.

FIFTH WARD:

J. A. RICHARDSON.

FRANK P. RICE.

WATER COMMISSIONERS:

Two Years.—First Ward—M. T. CASTLE.

BERRY—Second Ward—E. R. RAWSON.

Third Ward—G. W. TERRY.

Fourth Ward—F. W. COX.

Fifth Ward—A. MADDY.

To Merchants.

Our arrangements for giving the largest possible benefit to advertising during Fair Week, cannot be surpassed. Remember that the best medium of advertising is through the regular newspaper. Instead of frittering your money away, put a decent advertisement in the newspaper, which is real, and not thrown away. Send in your advertisements for the Fair and make contracts. We can prove to any one the superiority of THE CONSTITUTION as an advertising medium next week. Send in your advertisements early. In yours truly,

Our Advertisers.

For clerk of the house of representatives—C. Strother.

Advertising in the Constitution next week,
head the schedule of trains to Fair ground, and in the Constitution during fair week.

Read the card of Mack W. Johnson,
Advertising in the Constitution next week.

For the Fairgrounds via Marietta street.

Send in your advertisements early to-day.

Look out for tomorrow's CONSTITUTION,
Get a copy of it.

Go and see THE CONSTITUTION's beautiful plan at Turner & Baumann's.

Mrs. McNaught, wife, of the late Dr. Wm. Allen, died suddenly in that city on yesterday morning.

BETTERWELL SOCIETY meets tonight for rehearsal. Active members requested to be attendance promptly.

The dust was effectively laid by the copious shower last night—at least for a day or two.

The "boys" sent up yesterday between seven and eight hundred invitations to lodges
in the hall next Thursday night.

The general plan of our raffle
was had on the tipping point, with the following result: Number 239; tipping, 10.

Notes in ten cent prizes, and
dishes elegantly open at daily
Chamberlin, Boynton & Co.,
oct-16-dif. ***

We are daily receiving new and desirable
goods in all the fine shades,
CHAMBERLIN, BOYNTON & CO.,
oct-16-dif. ***

In Daley county, at the last election a vote
was had on the tipping point, with the following result: Number 239; tipping, 10.

Notes in ten cent prizes, and
dishes elegantly open at daily
Chamberlin, Boynton & Co.,
oct-16-dif. ***

BLACK and colored silks in large quantities and finer grades than ever before offered in Georgia.

CHAMBERLIN, BOYNTON & CO.,
oct-16-dif. ***

We have to say to the advertising public that there will be no medium of advertising better than THE CONSTITUTION during the Fair. It will be to the interest of all advertisers to engage space at once.

EAST CHURCH.—George D. F. Hammonton
will preach at Evans Chapel at 10:30 o'clock
A. M., to-morrow, and Rev. W. H. Potter at 7:30 A. M. The Sunday school anniversary will be held at 9:30 A. M. The services will be delivered. Everybody is invited.

J. H. HARRIS, Pastor.

Last night, the annual meeting of the Christian society of the Northern Methodist church, was held in Loyd street
chapel, and the business transacted.

Mr. W. E. DICKSON exhibited his paragon cheese in the county, and the cheese was delivered by Dr. Lanning, of Clark University, Bishop Andrew of New York, and Dr. Kast, of Cincinnati.

We published yesterday that persons from adjacent towns come to town with baskets of cotton samples, selling confidential cotton in that way, without taking any risk. It is a very serious matter to have them carelessly handled and
mediated with.

CONN COUNTY.

REMEMBER that all advertisements in THE CONSTITUTION are free to you, and the preserves and pickles they inspect.

Generally, these things are so destroyed and spoiled that they are not worth the cost of shipping.

Unless people are assured that their things will be unmolested, in this department, it is better to have them shipped on a flat-top.

It is a very serious
matter to have them carelessly handled and
mediated with.

COOPER-THOMAS.—A man named William Youmans was arrested here yesterday by the United States Deputy Marshals for passing a twenty dollar counterfeit bill he had obtained May 20th, and Mrs. B. E. Venable, of Stone Mountain, was his daughter. A large cir-cums. her dem.

NOTICE.—The ladies on the committee and
those interested assisting the managers of
the Benevolent Association in their
benevolent work, will meet on the 17th, at 2:30 P. M., in the Library on Saturday evening.

As this will be the last meet-
ing, it is very necessary
to have the meeting should be
as brief as possible, as business of great importance must be transacted.

By order of
Mrs. S. A. TELLER, Vice President.

A Man.

The Monaco family of Mexican gymnasts desire to employ a fluent speaker to take charge of their door of exhibition on the fair grounds next week. Apply to Vic-torine, at the pavilion, near the Moncayo, who are daughters. A large cir-cums. her dem.

NOTICE.—The ladies on the committee and
those interested assisting the managers of
the Benevolent Association in their
benevolent work, will meet on the
17th, at 2:30 P. M., in the Library on Saturday evening.

As this will be the last meet-
ing, it is very necessary
to have the meeting should be
as brief as possible, as business of great importance must be transacted.

By order of
Mrs. S. A. TELLER, Vice President.

STATION HOUSE.—Innumerable arrests were made yesterday. A row occurred in Bob-Yancey's saloon yesterday afternoon, which led to the arrest of two of the men. Another colored waiter being carried upstairs, was also locked up.

NOTICE.—The ladies on the committee and
those interested assisting the managers of
the Benevolent Association in their
benevolent work, will meet on the
17th, at 2:30 P. M., in the Library on Saturday evening.

As this will be the last meet-
ing, it is very necessary
to have the meeting should be
as brief as possible, as business of great importance must be transacted.

By order of
Mrs. S. A. TELLER, Vice President.

NOTICE.—The ladies on the committee and
those interested assisting the managers of
the Benevolent Association in their
benevolent work, will meet on the
17th, at 2:30 P. M., in the Library on Saturday evening.

As this will be the last meet-
ing, it is very necessary
to have the meeting should be
as brief as possible, as business of great importance must be transacted.

By order of
Mrs. S. A. TELLER, Vice President.

NOTICE.—The ladies on the committee and
those interested assisting the managers of
the Benevolent Association in their
benevolent work, will meet on the
17th, at 2:30 P. M., in the Library on Saturday evening.

As this will be the last meet-
ing, it is very necessary
to have the meeting should be
as brief as possible, as business of great importance must be transacted.

By order of
Mrs. S. A. TELLER, Vice President.

NOTICE.—The ladies on the committee and
those interested assisting the managers of
the Benevolent Association in their
benevolent work, will meet on the
17th, at 2:30 P. M., in the Library on Saturday evening.

As this will be the last meet-
ing, it is very necessary
to have the meeting should be
as brief as possible, as business of great importance must be transacted.

By order of
Mrs. S. A. TELLER, Vice President.

NOTICE.—The ladies on the committee and
those interested assisting the managers of
the Benevolent Association in their
benevolent work, will meet on the
17th, at 2:30 P. M., in the Library on Saturday evening.

As this will be the last meet-
ing, it is very necessary
to have the meeting should be
as brief as possible, as business of great importance must be transacted.

By order of
Mrs. S. A. TELLER, Vice President.

NOTICE.—The ladies on the committee and
those interested assisting the managers of
the Benevolent Association in their
benevolent work, will meet on the
17th, at 2:30 P. M., in the Library on Saturday evening.

As this will be the last meet-
ing, it is very necessary
to have the meeting should be
as brief as possible, as business of great importance must be transacted.

By order of
Mrs. S. A. TELLER, Vice President.

NOTICE.—The ladies on the committee and
those interested assisting the managers of
the Benevolent Association in their
benevolent work, will meet on the
17th, at 2:30 P. M., in the Library on Saturday evening.

As this will be the last meet-
ing, it is very necessary
to have the meeting should be
as brief as possible, as business of great importance must be transacted.

By order of
Mrs. S. A. TELLER, Vice President.

NOTICE.—The ladies on the committee and
those interested assisting the managers of
the Benevolent Association in their
benevolent work, will meet on the
17th, at 2:30 P. M., in the Library on Saturday evening.

As this will be the last meet-
ing, it is very necessary
to have the meeting should be
as brief as possible, as business of great importance must be transacted.

By order of
Mrs. S. A. TELLER, Vice President.

NOTICE.—The ladies on the committee and
those interested assisting the managers of
the Benevolent Association in their
benevolent work, will meet on the
17th, at 2:30 P. M., in the Library on Saturday evening.

As this will be the last meet-
ing, it is very necessary
to have the meeting should be
as brief as possible, as business of great importance must be transacted.

By order of
Mrs. S. A. TELLER, Vice President.

NOTICE.—The ladies on the committee and
those interested assisting the managers of
the Benevolent Association in their
benevolent work, will meet on the
17th, at 2:30 P. M., in the Library on Saturday evening.

As this will be the last meet-
ing, it is very necessary
to have the meeting should be
as brief as possible, as business of great importance must be transacted.

By order of
Mrs. S. A. TELLER, Vice President.

NOTICE.—The ladies on the committee and
those interested assisting the managers of
the Benevolent Association in their
benevolent work, will meet on the
17th, at 2:30 P. M., in the Library on Saturday evening.

As this will be the last meet-
ing, it is very necessary
to have the meeting should be
as brief as possible, as business of great importance must be transacted.

By order of
Mrs. S. A. TELLER, Vice President.

